3. Optional Extras

Please note that a full term's notice is required in writing to discontinue any optional extra.

a) Please refer to supplementary sheets for prices of:

- Music tuition
- Speech and Drama
- Dance
- Learning Support
- English Language tuition

b) Incidentals:

- some Monday afternoon activities (eg riding, clay pigeon shooting, polo)
- extra private tuition
- visits to plays, concerts, etc outside the curriculum

4. Insurance

- a) The following pupil insurances are available on an opt in basis:
- i The School Fees Refund Scheme (loss of fees through sickness) at 1.05% of fees
 - ii The School's group membership of AXA PPP Healthcare at £99.00 per term
 - iii Personal Effects Insurance Scheme at £8.57 per term
- b) Please note that personal possessions are not covered by the School insurance. Parents should check whether their own insurance covers such items whilst at School and if appropriate consider taking advantage of the Pupils' Personal Effects Insurance Scheme.
- c) The School has arranged for all pupils from Reception Year upwards to be covered by the Pupil's Personal Accident Insurance Scheme (incorporating Dental injury) at no additional charge.

5. Payment

- a) All fees and monies due from parents and guardians of pupils are required on or before the first day of the relevant term. Payments by cheque should be forwarded to the Bursary, The Dean Close Foundation, 67 Lansdown Road, Cheltenham, Glos, GL51 6QD. If payment is late without just cause an administrative charge of £50 will be made, in addition interest at the School's standard rate (currently 2% per month) will be charged on the outstanding balance.
- b) A charge of £50 will be made for each re-presented cheque or payment.
- c) The Trustees reserve the right to request the withdrawal of a pupil if the bills are not paid on time.

6. Leaving

- a) Parents must give notice in writing before the start of the preceding term of their intention to remove a pupil from the School or for a change of status eg. from boarding to day, flexi boarding to day, etc. If such notice is not given, a full term's notice in lieu of notice, without the benefit of any concessions, will be payable. This notice must be a letter addressed to the Head and signed by both parents / guardians and be received by the Head on or before the first day of term. This also applies to pupils of DCPS who are presumed to be going on to DCS, unless notice is received. Provisional notice can be accepted where a pupil's return to School depends on examination results. Parents are advised to seek early advice from the Bursar when considering removing pupils from School.
- b) The Trustees will endeavour to give at least one term's notice of a rise in fees; however, they reserve the right to impose a surcharge at any time in the event of a sudden and unpredictable rise in school running costs.
