

Overseas Trips Matrix

Date	Destination	Department	Purpose of the Trip	Staff Coordinator	Year Group	Likely Cost
2020
March	Greece	Classics	To investigate and explore the culture and treasures of modern and ancient Greece. This trip is open to all pupils who are studying Classics, Latin or Greek. We will visit Athens, Apollo's oracle at Delphi, ancient Mycenae, Corinth, Olympia, home of the Olympic Games, as well as a host of other fascinating archaeological sites.	Miss Stewart	All Years	£500 - £1000
July	Spain (Salamanca)	Modern Foreign Languages	An opportunity to immerse oneself into Spanish culture and lifestyle by staying with Spanish families in the beautiful university city of Salamanca. Students can boost their linguistic confidence before GCSE and A Level exams through morning classes at a language school.	Mrs Carames-Castelo	Years 10, 11, 12	£600 - £800
October	Iceland	Geography	A superb opportunity to explore the country of fire and ice. Geographically this is one of the most fascinating countries and offers the chance to explore volcanoes, glaciers and stunning waterfalls, which are studied at both GCSE and A level.	Mrs Bourne	All Geographers	£1000 - £1500
2021
January	Italy	Sport (Rec.)	Ski Trip - An opportunity to ski in the Italian Alps providing small group instruction to facilitate the development of ski and snowboarding skills.	Mr Mochan	All Years	£1000 - £1500
March	France	History	A visit to the World War 1 Battlefields of France and gain first-hand knowledge and experience of the areas and further insight into the events of the War and the hardships endured by the soldiers.	Mr Sheldon	Years 9, 10	Under £500

March	Spain	Art	An inspiring opportunity to experience a fascinating and beautiful city with visits to outstanding art galleries and sites of cultural and artistic significance. Destination will be Barcelona or Madrid (tbc).	Mrs Evans	Years 10, 11, 12, 13	£600 - £750
July	France (Montpellier)	Modern Foreign Languages	An opportunity to immerse oneself into French culture and lifestyle by staying with French families in the lively city of Montpellier in the South of France. Students can boost their linguistic confidence before GCSE and A Level exams through morning classes at a language school.	Mr Sumner	Years 10, 11, 12	£600 - £900
July	Uganda	International Partnerships	Dean Close has had a link school in Uganda in the district of Ibanda for a number of years, and visits the school biennially in order to facilitate and enhance the learning of the pupils. This trip includes a wild life safari at a nearby safari lodge.	Mr David Evans	Years 12, 13 (6th Form)	£1500 - £2000
October	Poland (Krakow)	History & Politics	An opportunity to explore this historical city and areas surrounding Auschwitz whilst trying to understand the significance of this in context of being the first of the Nazi German concentration camps.	Mrs McShane	Years 10, 11, 12, 13	£500 - £1000
2022
April	Italy (Bay of Naples)	Classics	To visit the towns of Herculaneum and Pompeii as well as the site of Paestum; day trips to Capri and to Amalfi are also planned.	Mr Allen / Miss Stewart	All Years	£800 - £1000
July	Spain (Salamanca)	Modern Foreign Languages	An opportunity to immerse oneself into Spanish culture and lifestyle by staying with Spanish families in the beautiful university city of Salamanca. Students can boost their linguistic confidence before GCSE and A Level exams through morning classes at a language school.	Mrs Carames-Castelo	Years 10, 11, 12	£600 - £800
October	tbc	Sport (Rec.)	An opportunity to experience life under the water and gain a recognised Sub-Aqua qualification. This promises to provide a unique understanding of an unseen ecosystem.	Mr Montgomery	All Years	£500 - £1000

October	Iceland	Geography	A superb opportunity to explore the country of fire and ice. Geographically this is one of the most fascinating countries and offers the chance to explore volcanoes, glaciers and stunning waterfalls, which are studied at both GCSE and A level.	Mrs Bourne	All Geographers	£1000 - £1500
2023
July	France (Montpellier)	Modern Foreign Languages	An opportunity to immerse oneself into French culture and lifestyle by staying with French families in the lively city of Montpellier in the South of France. Students can boost their linguistic confidence before GCSE and A Level exams through morning classes at a language school.	Mr Sumner	Years 10, 11, 12	£600 - £900
July	Uganda	International Partnerships	Dean Close has had a link school in Uganda in the district of Ibanda for a number of years, and visits the school biennially in order to facilitate and enhance the learning of the pupils. This trip includes a wild life safari at a nearby safari lodge.	Mr David Evans	Years 12, 13 (6th Form)	£1500 - £2000
October	Berlin	History & Politics	An opportunity to understand the complexity of the Berlin Wall and the division between East and West. The architecture is inspiring, and a visit to Brandenburg Gate and the Reichstad building will form part of this trip.	Mrs McShane	Years 10, 11, 12, 13	£500 - £1000

Key:

Proposed, Costed & Confirmed

Proposed and Costed

Proposed